From its early beginnings as a skiffle group formed by John McNally and a bunch of friends through the heady days of the 60's as the latest teenage idols, The Searchers have comfortably settled into a position well deserved by a band whose sound has influenced some of the most important artists of our generation including The Byrds, Tom Petty and Bruce Springsteen who all happily acknowledge their debt to The Searchers. Their first single, "Sweets For My Sweet" shot to #1 in the summer of 1963 quickly followed by "Sugar and Spice" and "Needles and Pins." Additional hits included "Love Potion Number Nine," "Don't Throw Your Love Away" and "Someday We're Gonna Love Again." Today the band is been busy touring in Australia and New Zealand and throughout Europe including Belgium, Norway and Germany as well as across Canada and the United States. And with each and every concert they play, The Searchers are proving to be a triumph in musical entertainment.

From humble beginnings in coffee houses and folk clubs in London, singing folk rock duo Chad Stuart and Jeremy Clyde were "discovered" by famed movie composer, John Barry in 1963 and recorded a string of hits including "Yesterday's Gone," "Summer Song," "Willow Weep For Me," "If I Loved You," "Before and After" and "Distant Shores." As former drama students, they were quickly snapped up by Hollywood appearing as themselves in such legendary 60's television shows as "The Hollywood Palace," "The Dick Van Dyke Show," "The Patty Duke Show," "The Andy Williams Show" and "Batman." After going their separate ways in the 70's, the duo reunited for a short time in the 80's and then again in the summer of 2003 when they appeared on PBS's "60's Pop Reunion" special. They have been touring ever since. Their most recent album, ARK-eology was released this past October and features all new versions of their greatest hits ... the album went to #1 on Amazon.com's Hot New Contemporary Releases charts. Chad & Jeremy have just finished work on a new album, Zanzibar Sunset which will be released later this year along with a documentary titled "Yesterday's Back."
