APRIL WINE

LIVE AT THE RED ROBINSON SHOW THEATRE
FRIDAY, MAY 22

Coquitlam, BC - It all began in Nova Scotia back in late 1969 ... the Henman brothers, David and Ritchie together with their cousin Jim Henman and fellow musician Myles Goodwyn all got together and formed a band called "April Wine" ... a name chosen simply because they were two words that they thought sounded good together. Sixteen studio albums, three live releases, numerous compilations, a boxed set and thousands of concerts later, April Wine remains enormously popular here in Canada and throughout the world.

Hit songs include "You Could Have Been A Lady" (1972), "I Wouldn't Want to Lose Your Love" (1974), "Tonight is A Wonderful Time to Fall in Love" (1975), "The Whole World's Goin' Crazy" (1976), "You Won't Dance With Me" (1977), "Just Between You and Me" (1981) and "Enough is Enough" (1982).

In 2006, they released two CDs ... April Wine Rocks! which was a compilation of April Wine favourites including a bonus live tune and Roughly Speaking, a studio album featuring new material written by Myles. The band continues their hectic pace touring throughout both Canada and the United States as well as playing at festivals in Europe and are still satisfying fans with a live mix of straight ahead rock & roll and power ballads—an April Wine mainstay. The line-up today consists of Myles, guitarist Brian Greenway and Breen LeBoeuf on bass along with newest member, Blair MacKay replacing drummer Jerry Mercer who retired at the end of 2008. April Wine will be performing for one night only at Boulevard Casino's Red Robin Show Theatre in May.
