EN VOGUE

LIVE AT THE RIVER ROCK SHOW THEATRE
FRIDAY, MARCH 20

Richmond, BC - Since En Vogue's debut in 1990, the group – who were the brain child of production team Denzil Foster and Thomas McElroy – set a standard for female R&B and pop acts. And while they may have been trendsetters for those who followed them, they continue to receive comparisons to The Supremes.

Songs like "Hold On," "My Lovin' (You're Never Gonna Get It)," "Giving Him Something He Can Feel," "Free Your Mind" and "Whatta Man" (featuring Salt-N-Pepa) are just a sampling of the mega-hits made famous by the group. Fusing style, sophistication, sass and sex appeal, the En Vogue formula was magical and the ladies – Terry Ellis, Dawn Robinson, Maxine Jones and Cindy Herron-Braggs – went on to sell over eight million albums. In total, they recorded five albums and as well, there have been several compilations released.

And although they embarked on their musical journey nearly twenty years ago, En Vogue's appeal is greater than ever before. Looking towards the future, the group will be celebrating the magic of the original four members by releasing a 20th anniversary album and launching a global tour. En Vogue will be performing for a one-night engagement at the River Rock Casino Resort in March.
