THE BEACH BOYS

LIVE AT THE RED ROBINSON SHOW THEATRE
FRIDAY & SATURDAY – AUGUST 28 & 29

Coquitlam, BC - For four decades, The Beach Boys – originally comprised of the three Wilson brothers Brian, Carl and Dennis, their cousin Mike Love and neighbour Al Jardine – made music that became North America's soundtrack to summer. Inductees of the Rock and Roll Hall of Fame and recipients of the Grammy's Lifetime Achievement Award, The Beach Boys are an American institution that is iconic worldwide.

The group began singing about the newest craze, surfing, in 1961. What then followed was a wave of hits that expressed lives, dreams and ambitions with generations of North Americans. Their sound, full of sun-drenched harmonies and golden melodies brought the world optimism and a taste of California wherever the band's music was played. After Brian retired from touring in 1965, Bruce Johnston then joined the band. Their numerous hits include "Surfin' Safari," "Surfin' USA," "Surfer Girl," "Fun, Fun, Fun," "I Get Around," "Help Me, Rhonda," "Do You Wanna Dance?," "California Girls," "Wouldn't It Be Nice" and "Good Vibrations." And of course there's 1988's "Kokomo" which was their first #1 hit in twenty-two years and was featured on the soundtrack of Tom Cruise's film, Cocktail.

Last year Capitol/EMI released the first complete collection of The Beach Boys' early Capitol Records singles spanning the years 1962 to 1965. The Beach Boys: U.S. Singles Collection – The Capitol Years. Today Love and Johnston still perform to sold-out audiences and hope that their music will continue to bring smiles and laughter for years to come. As Johnston says, "Our music will always let you know that summer means fun ... forever!"
