WAYNE BRADY

HOST OF FOX'S HIT GAME SHOW "DON'T FORGET THE LYRICS!"

FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 18 - RED ROBINSON SHOW THEATRE
SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 19 - RIVER ROCK SHOW THEATRE

Emmy Award winning Wayne Brady is one of the most versatile performers in show business today. He sings, dances, acts and is an improvisational genius. In 2001, he hosted his own variety series, "The Wayne Brady Show" which ran on ABC from 2001 to 2002 and then was revamped as a syndicated daytime talk show for two seasons from 2002 to 2004 for which he picked up two Emmys for "Outstanding Talk Show Host" with the show winning an Emmy for "Outstanding Talk Show." During that time, he was also featured on ABC's "Whose Line Is It Anyway?" winning an Emmy for "Outstanding Individual Performance in a Variety, Musical or Comedy Series."

In 2005, Brady completed a run playing "Billy Flynn" in the Broadway production of "Chicago" while on the big screen he starred in Rollbounce for Fox Searchlight. In 2006, he starred in the Screen Gems motion picture, Crossover and in the independent film, The List. In addition, he completed voiceover roles in the animated features, Stuart Little 3: Call of the Wild (2005), The Adventures of Brer Rabbit (2006) and the soon to be released Foodfight.

Currently Brady can be seen as the host of FOX's hit singing game show "Don't Forget the Lyrics!" which is now in its second season. And just last fall, his debut R&B album, A Long Time Coming was released by Peak Records which features the single, "Ordinary." He also stills stars in his own live show, "Making It Up" at the Venetian in Las Vegas and continues to tour throughout Canada and the United States with his hilarious improv stage show which incorporates singing, audience participation and a musical homage to some of his biggest inspirations. He'll be performing at both Boulevard Casino's Red Robinson Show Theatre and River Rock Casino Resort in September.
