'Heavyweight Explosion'

RUMBLE at the ROCK V

River Rock Show Theatre

March 27, 2009

February 23, 2009

Richmond, B.C. - After four consecutively sold out Rumble at the Rock boxing events, West Coast Promotions and Great Canadian Gaming Corporation have geared up to present yet another exciting Rumble at the Rock V on Friday, March 27th, 2009. This will be the first of the new and electrifying West Coast Pro Club Series.

In the pursuit of showcasing the very best boxers out of Western Canada, Rumble at the Rock V will feature seven quality professional bouts showcasing some of the finest local talent. The undercard includes a truly rare explosion of Heavyweights such as Mike Heathfield, Paul Cheng, Tiny Brown, Inderjit Bisla, Stacey Migley and Jaime Walton who will face quality opposition in the ring. Also on the card, Richmond boxing sensation Junior Moar and Louis Sargeant will battle for the newly established BC Super Middleweight Title.

The main event will feature the Canadian American Mexican champion and #1 Canadian ranked Super Middleweight contender Mark Woolnough who will battle the 2002 Commonwealth Bronze medalist, Michael Walchuck. This bout is sure to make the apron and stands roar and rumble.

Tickets are on sale and can be purchased through Ticketmaster.ca or at the River Rock Box Office.
