ANDRÉ-PHILIPPE GAGNON

AN ALL NEW SHOW COMBINING MUSIC, COMEDY & MULTIMEDIA INTERACTION!

LIVE AT THE RED ROBINSON SHOW THEATRE
FRIDAY, MAY 7

Coquitlam, BC – Born in Quebec City, André-Philippe Gagnon began performing his comedic impressions at local talent shows and festivals. It wasn't long though until he became one of the hottest performers in Canada playing sold-out shows across the country. One of his biggest breaks came in the mid-80's when he appeared at the world-renowned comedy festival, Just For Laughs in Montreal. After that show, he was invited to appear on NBC's The Tonight Show Starring Johnny Carson where he performed his "signature" song ... his version of the famine-relief anthem, "We Are The World" impersonating every singer on the song ... eighteen famous voices in one composition. American audiences then discovered his incredible versatility and it was just a matter of time before he returned to the US and expanded his horizons.

In 2004 after overwhelming success in Las Vegas, Gagnon pursued his tour across North America, the Caribbean and Europe. Now he has teamed up with Canadian comedy writers, Gord Holtam and Rick Olsen from CBC's Royal Canadian Air Farce and George Reinblatt from CBC's Rick Mercer Report and Just For Laughs to create a brand new show. In addition, Moment Factory – the multimedia firm behind the most recent "Nine Inch Nails" tour and some of Le Cirque du Soleil's creation's – jumped on board to help Gagnon generate his most personal show ever ... a combination of technology and creativity. Gagnon began his tour this past January which will include a one-night engagement at Boulevard Casino's Red Robinson Show Theatre in May.
