ANDREW DICE CLAY

LIVE AT THE RIVER ROCK SHOW THEATRE
SATURDAY, OCTOBER 31

Richmond, BC – Andrew Dice Clay made a career out of being the most outrageous comic of his time. Before Dave Chappelle and before South Park, Dice was shocking audiences ... breaking the rules with a never-before-seen style of hardcore comedy. He became the man to hate by every PC group in America. His rise to fame was meteoric — sold-out arenas, platinum albums, starring roles in films and TV specials.

Dice has had his ups and downs throughout his career. At one point he was banned for life from MTV which ended up making him more popular than Madonna at the time. In 2007, Dice starred in the VH1 series, Dice Undisputed where his controversial macho image often collided with his real family life and the man behind all the limericks and leather was in a fight all his own. There he was ... a devoted father of two teenage rocker sons dealing with a broken marriage, living with his new fiancée, Eleanor and then facing the everyday challenges of middle age.

Recently he appeared on NBC's The Celebrity Apprentice 2 ... the charity he chose to play for was "StandUp For Kids" — a non-profit organization for homeless at-risk youth. He still enjoys performing his unconventional stand-up show to sold out audiences across North America. It's been said that what you will see on stage is a very talented actor-comedian who will most likely shock you with what he has to say. And after the shock wears off, the laughter remains. Andrew Dice Clay will be appearing at the River Rock Casino Resort for one show only in October.
