HOLLYWOOD LIVE: ON DEADLY GROUND

HOSTED BY STEVEN SEAGAL

LIVE AT THE RIVER ROCK SHOW THEATRE

SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 18

Richmond, BC – Millions around the world know Steven Seagal for his work as an action film superstar in front of the camera. But few realize that he is an accomplished writer, producer and director as well. When Seagal hit the big screen in 1988 with the release of his first film, Above the Law, its immediate success set the stage for a career that now spans over twenty years, twenty movies and $2 billion in box office revenues.

In 1994, Seagal made his directorial debut with On Deadly Ground in which he played an oil rig explosives expert trying to single-handedly save Alaska from an evil oil corporation run by Michael Caine. Seagal used the movie to stress the issues of pollution and environmental destruction. The film – which Seagal co-produced as well – also stars Joan Chen, John C. McGinley and Billy Bob Thornton in one of his early appearances. This September, Seagal will host a screening of the now classic film at the River Rock Casino Resort's state-of-the-art show theatre. Following the film, Seagal will share stories from behind-the-scenes and take questions from the audience during an exclusive Q&A forum.
