APRIL WINE

LIVE AT THE RED ROBINSON SHOW THEATRE
FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 12

Coquitlam, BC – It all began in Nova Scotia back in late 1969 ... the Henman brothers, David and Ritchie together with their cousin, Jim Henman and fellow musician, Myles Goodwyn all got together and formed a band called April Wine ... a name chosen simply because they were two words that they thought sounded good together. Sixteen studio albums, three live releases, numerous compilations, a boxed set and thousands of concerts later, April Wine remains enormously popular in North America and throughout the world. Their hits include "You Could Have Been A Lady" (1972), "I Wouldn't Want to Lose Your Love" (1974), "Tonight is A Wonderful Time to Fall in Love" (1975), "The Whole World's Goin' Crazy" (1976), "You Won't Dance With Me" (1977), "Just Between You and Me" (1981) and "Enough is Enough" (1982).

In 2006, they released two CDs ... April Wine Rocks!, a compilation of April Wine favourites including a bonus live tune and Roughly Speaking, a studio album featuring new material written by Myles. Just this past April, the band was inducted in to the Canadian Music Hall of Fame at the Juno Awards. The group continues their hectic pace touring throughout both Canada and the United States still satisfying fans with a live mix of straight ahead rock & roll and power ballads – an April Wine mainstay. The line-up today consists of Myles, guitarist Brian Greenway, bassist Breen LeBoeuf and Blair MacKay on drums. April Wine will be returning to Boulevard Casino's Red Robinson Show Theatre for one show only in November.
