CHANTAL KREVIAZUK

FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 6 – RIVER ROCK SHOW THEATRE
SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 7 – RED ROBINSON SHOW THEATRE

Juno Award winning singer-songwriter Chantal Kreviazuk will be touring Canada this fall coinciding with the release of her new album, Plain Jane which will be released by MapleMusic Recordings on October 13th. Chantal – who was born and raised in Winnipeg – released her debut album, Under These Rock and Stones in 1997 ... the album which featured the singles “Surrounded,” “God Made Me” and “Believer” made an immediate impact and has achieved double platinum status in Canada. Nominated for five Junos and winner of “Best Pop Album” and “Best Female Artist” for her 2000 release, Colour Moving and Still, Chantal’s skills as a musician and as a songwriter are unparalleled.

The songs on Plane Jane all feature Chantal's signature piano-driven songwriting but there are also some playful twists ... most notably in the soulful sound of the impossibly catchy track, “Ordinary People” ... a song that Chantal explains came about after coming to a realization. “We all have a daily grind, we all can feel pretty beaten down by it. It’s sort of confusing, knowing that we are truly all in it together.”

Ever Chantal's muse, many of the album's love songs are surely written about her husband Raine Maida including the first single, “Invincible.” The track was written about a period fifteen years ago after a major car accident and a subsequent romance with Raine. It was a tumultuous yet wonderful time that she’s never talked about until now. “I was at a real bottom after the accident ... physically and mentally. Raine really pushed me out of caring about those problems. He allowed me to be OK with myself.” The lyric concludes, “As long as you’re here, I’m invincible.”

Chantal is looking forward to the start of her tour next month as she visits Canadian cities from coast to coast. The tour will include performances at the River Rock Casino Resort and at Boulevard Casino’s Red Robinson Show Theatre in November.
