THUNDER FROM DOWN UNDER

AUSTRALIA'S INTERNATIONALLY ACCLAIMED MALE REVUE SHOW

FRIDAY, MARCH 26 – RIVER ROCK SHOW THEATRE
SATURDAY, MARCH 27 – RED ROBINSON SHOW THEATRE

Thunder From Down Under, the Australian male revue show, calls their non-stop sensual journey a "World Fantasy" as its charismatic troupe turns fantasy into reality with the blink of an eye. It was in July, 2001 when the show officially moved into the Excalibur Hotel and Casino in Las Vegas where it quickly exceeded all attendance expectations. Since then, Thunder had toured in more than fifteen countries.

In fact, the show is in such demand that there is a second troupe touring internationally according to Thunder's producers, Billy Cross and Adam Steck. They have also become a favourite as guests on such television shows as VH1's "Strip Search," NBC's "Last Call with Carson Daly," "Entertainment Tonight" and most of the lifestyle and entertainment programs in Australia.

With dynamic dance routines, colourful costumes, state-of-the-art lighting and hilarious humour, the Australian Thunder experience is like no other male revue show in the world. Their latest production features several new numbers including trips back to the '50s and the '70s. Discover the Thunder touch that has intrigued women around the globe when Thunder From Down Under comes to the River Rock Casino Resort and Boulevard Casino's Red Robinson Show Theatre in March, 2010.
