BOULEVARD CASINO PRESENTS

BOB NEWHART

LIVE AT THE RED ROBINSON SHOW THEATRE
SATURDAY, MAY 29

Coquitlam, BC – Bob Newhart’s career has spanned two successful television shows and fourteen feature films. He has sold millions of albums worldwide and his fans still flock to his live performances to hear such Newhart standards as “The Driving Instructor,” “Sir Walter Raleigh” and “The Submarine Commander.” These timeless classics are enjoyed by young and old alike at sold-out concerts across North America. Bob’s debut album, The Button-Down Mind of Bob Newhart was released in 1960 and became the first comedy album to go to #1 on the charts. He was an immediate sell-out in nightclubs all over the country. Seven more albums followed ... each extremely successful multi-platinum projects. In fact, Bob’s cumulative recording career earned him three Grammys. As proof of this, his record for holding the #1 and #2 Billboard chart positions was not broken until recently.

Bob has enjoyed tremendous success in television and films as well. He earned an Emmy and a Peabody Award for his work on NBC’s The Bob Newhart Variety Show (1961-1962) which was quickly followed by the phenomenal success of The Bob Newhart Show (1972-1978) and Newhart (1982–1990) ... both of which aired on CBS. His feature films include Hell Is for Heroes (1962), Cold Turkey (1971), First Family (1980), In and Out (1997) and Elf (2003). In 2005, he played the recurring role as “Morty Flickman” on ABC’s Desperate Housewives and was then honoured with the distinction of being heralded as an American Master by the PBS documentary of the same name.

In 2006, Bob released his highly anticipated book through Hyperion Publishing entitled I Shouldn’t Even Be Doing This which became a New York Times bestseller. His most recent television role has been that of the library head, “Judson” on TNT’s The Librarian ... a series of made-for-TV original movies starring Noah Wyle. As much success as Bob has enjoyed on television and in feature films, he has never strayed far from his first love of performing stand-up. Bob Newhart will be appearing at Boulevard Casino’s Red Robinson Show Theatre for just one show in May, 2010.
