TRAVIS TRITT

LIVE AT THE RED ROBINSON SHOW THEATRE
SATURDAY, APRIL 14

Coquitlam, BC – Country singer-songwriter Travis Tritt has sold over 25 million albums, won two Grammy awards and three Country Music Awards over the course of his storied career. He first fell in love with music as a child ... teaching himself how to play guitar when he was eight and beginning to write songs when he was fourteen. In 1982, Tritt decided to pursue a career in music and recorded a demo tape at a private studio owned by Danny Davenport, an executive at Warner Brothers. Davenport heard the vocalist's songs and was so impressed that he took Tritt under his wing and for the next several years, the pair recorded demo tapes. During this time, the singer was developing a distinctive sound adding elements of country-rock and Southern rock to his honky tonk.

In 1989, Warner Brothers signed him which resulted in his debut album, Country Club the following year with Tritt quickly entering the first ranks of new country singers. His next two singles, "Help Me Hold On" and "I'm Gonna Be Somebody" hit #1 and #2 respectively. He had breakthrough success with his second album, It's All About to Change in 1991 followed the next year with his third album, T-r-o-u-b-l-e which went gold and featured the #1 single, "Can I Trust You With My Heart". In 1994, he released Ten Feet Tall & Bulletproof which went platinum and spawned the #1 single, "Foolish Pride". The album also marked his highest position – #20 – on the pop charts. He continued to record album after album releasing his seventeenth album, The Storm in 2007 which he co-produced with Randy Jackson. The album featured the single, "You Never Take Me Dancing". Travis Tritt will be performing for one night only at Boulevard Casino's Red Robinson Show Theatre on April 14, 2012.
