RIVER ROCK CASINO RESORT
PRESENTS

JONNY LANG

LIVE AT THE RIVER ROCK SHOW THEATRE
FRIDAY, MARCH 6

Jonny Lang, the Grammy winning, former prodigy instrumentalist who topped the Billboard New Artist chart with his album, Lie to Me at age fifteen stands now as a mature creative force ... made more sensitive yet also toughened by life's adventures. He's learned what it means to rise above hard times and to find meaning where chaos seemed to rule.

A professional musician since the age of twelve, Lang rocketed from his hometown of Fargo, North Dakota to international renown in his mid-teens. While kids his age were still playing high school gigs, he was touring with giants like The Rolling Stones and Aerosmith, trading licks with mentors like B.B. King and Buddy Guy and being lauded by U.S. News and World Report for having "the voice of a grizzled blues veteran ... and guitar skills to match."

Lang's albums include Lie to Me (1997), Wander This World (1999) and Long Time Coming (2003). His most recent album, Turn Around was released in 2006 and is a mix of gospel, country, funk, jazz and folk influences ... the album earned him a Grammy Award for "Best Rock or Rap Gospel Album." Jonny Lang will be performing for one night at the River Rock Casino Resort in March, 2009.
