BJORN AGAIN

THE ABBA EXPERIENCE

LIVE AT THE RED ROBINSON SHOW THEATRE

SATURDAY, JANUARY 24

World famous ABBA tribute band Bjorn Again has performed all over the world taking ABBA's timeless music to people and places where the genuine article can never again be experienced – even in Sweden.

Formed in Melbourne, Australia in 1988, the band takes special care in their re-creations both visually and in their accurate reflection of the ABBA sound which dominated much of the world when the Swedish quartet was active. With use of "Swenglish" accents and too familiar dance steps plus a pinch of satire and a spot of humour, Bjorn Again's live shows are among the most entertaining in the world today.

Bjorn Again currently has five troupes around the world based in Canada, Australia and the UK. Demand for shows, tours and appearances are at an all time high as millions experience authentic concerts by one of the most brilliant bands touring today. To date, they have performed an astonishing 5000 concerts in fifty countries around the world. ABBA have made it clear that they will never reunite and many feel that without doubt, Bjorn Again has made such a reunion unnecessary as they recreate with breathtaking authenticity the ABBA experience.
